SPLENDID SHOWING SPELLS PROSPERITY

D. C. Drake Again President and L. D. Palmer Secretary Of Efficient Body

At the annual meeting of the Orange County Fruit Exchange yesterday, reports were received showing the fiscal fruit year ending August 31 to have been the greatest in the history of the exchange.

Following are some figures:

Total receipts	$2,450,326.14
Total shipments	2185 carloads
Total oranges	1771 carloads
Total lemons	414 carloads
Total Valencia	603,727 boxes
Total navel	75,623 boxes
Total sweets	14,447 boxes
Total St. Mike's	925 boxes
Total miscellaneous	807 boxes

Directors of the Orange County Fruit Exchange, which is the selling agent for nine citrus growers' co-operative associations, were highly pleased at the showing made by the exchange during the last year.

L. D. Palmer, secretary and manager of the exchange, in his report at the annual meeting held yesterday at the exchange's offices in Orange, gave detailed information of the year's work.

Officers Elected

At yesterday's meeting officers for the year were elected as follows: D. C. Drake, Orange, president; F. J. Dettenthaler, Villa Park, vice president; National Bank of Orange, treasurer; L. D. Palmer, Orange, secretary and manager.

Each association that belongs to the exchange has a representative on the board of directors. The names of the associations belonging to the exchange, and the directors, follow:

Santiago Orange Growers' Association, Orange, D. C. Drake; Tustin Hills Citrus Association, Tustin, A. E. Bennett; McPherson Heights Citrus Association, McPherson, R. W. Jones; Villa Park Orchards' Association, Villa Park, F. J. Dettenthaler; Olive Heights Citrus Association, Olive, E. E. White; Tustin Lemon Association, Tustin, F. W. Knight; Central Lemon Growers' Association, Villa Park, G. Williamson; D. Hewes Realty Company, El Modena, Ross Folger; Garden Grove Citrus Association, Garden Grove, J. O. Arkley.

Shipments and Returns

The business of the Orange County Fruit Exchange for the season 1915-16, which closed August 31, was the largest in its history. Our shipments amounted to 2185 carloads of citrus fruits, for which this exchange received $2,450,326.14, which establishes a new record both in volume of shipments and returns for fruit shipped in any one season. Our shipments consisted of 1771 carloads of oranges, amounting to 695,529 1/2 boxes, and 414 carloads of lemons, amounting to 102,597 boxes.

Cost of Operation

The cost to the associations for the operation of this exchange, including all special expenses, such as field work, local advertising, etc., amounted to 77-100 of 1 cent per packed box. The selling expense of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange for the season was approximately 4 1/2 cents per packed box on oranges and 5 1/4 cents per packed box on lemons, or an average selling cost of 4 2/3 cents per packed box.

Advertising

The cost of the nation-wide advertising campaign carried on by the California Fruit Growers' Exchange was 2 1/2 cents per packed box on oranges and 4 cents per box on lemons. An appropriation has been authorized for the coming season of $275,000, or not to exceed 2 1/2 cents per box on oranges, and $105,000, or not to exceed 4 cents per box on lemons, based on the estimate of January 1 next.

The advertising of Sunkist oranges and lemons by the California Fruit Growers' Exchange has materially increased consumption at all seasons of the year, but its effect is particularly noticeable in the increased demand that has existed for the past two seasons on Valencia oranges, a large quantity of which are on the market at times when the markets are flooded with all varieties of fruits. The orange has been put before the public as an article that can be served in many tempting ways and is fast becoming more of a staple than a luxury. Many practical uses for the lemon.

ARRIVES NEW YORK AT EARLY HOUR IS MET BY DELEGATION

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Ambassador Gerard, returning from two years in Germany today, refused to answer any questions regarding the peace proposals he was supposed to be carrying, or to talk about the submarine controversy.

"Isn't it true that you are bringing a peace message from the Kaiser to our President?" asked a reporter.

"I can not answer that question, I am sorry to say," was the reply. "To answer any question of that nature might seriously involve me."

The ambassador's attention was then called to the wireless message sent from the liner Frederick VIII, stating that he was bringing the terms of peace and peace proposals. But still he persisted that he could not answer the question.

"It is reported that you will go back to Germany," one reporter told him.

"I am not sure when I will go back, but I certainly shall go back," replied Gerard.

When asked concerning the latest developments of Germany's submarine warfare, that being conducted along the Atlantic coast, the ambassador stated that he had first learned of it through the wireless reports and messages being picked up by the liner throughout Sunday night.

A party of New York officials, including also former ambassadors Strauss and Morganthau, went down the bay in an official patrol boat to convey the ambassador and his wife up the bay. The Gerards boarded the boat at the request of the party and were brought into the city at full speed, while a cold wind swept down the channel. Both Mr. and Mrs. Gerard went on deck at the request of the reporters, to be photographed. At one time they were posing before seven moving picture machines and ten still cameras.

In a brief address to the welcoming party, Gerard thanked them for their reception, both for himself and for his wife, who he said had stood by him nobly during the two years they had spent in Germany during and since the opening of the war.

"I want to thank you for this reception," he said. "I feel highly complimented that you should arise at this very early hour and, especially that you are accompanied by these two ambassadors, whose efforts at their small but great posts have made excellent reputations. You pay us a great compliment by coming down to meet our boat."

APPLE GROWER IS CAUGHT UNDER TRUCK TODAY ON FIFTH

Blinded by a hard rain this morning, J. W. Martin, an apple grower residing west of the river, drove his truck off the road and into a ditch on West Fifth street just east of the Pacific Electric crossing. The truck was loaded with apples. It was turned upside down, Martin being caught under the load. He escaped with only a few bruises.

Martin was coming to town with a load of apples a little before 7 o'clock. He was facing a driving rain. He could not see where he was going. He took a hand off the steering gear in order to wipe the water out of his eyes. When he took his hand off the wheel, the car veered suddenly and went into the ditch by the side of the road.

Martin was caught under the machine when it turned bottom up. He landed in a crouching position and this is what saved his life. He was bent up under the seat and the steering wheel held the weight of the truck, saving him from being crushed to death.

S. A. Clark of West Fifth street phoned City Officer Pond for assistance. The latter called upon J. E. Liebig for assistance and the use of his machine, but by the time they got there Clark and others had raised the machine and released Martin.

Martin was able to get up and walk and refused the offer of friends to take him to his home. He was expecting his children to come by on their way to school and waited for them.

Bruises about the head, neck and shoulders were the extent of the injuries sustained.

In Collision

Floyd Badders, 113 South Broadway, riding a motorcycle, collided last night with a Ford car registered under the name of Elmer Salter of El Toro. No particular damage resulted. Report of the accident was made to police headquarters.

PARADE HELD FOR THE HARBOR BONDS

LONG BEACH, Oct. 10.—More than 2000 persons, parading the business streets, made a demonstration last evening for a factory town as against a smokeless beach. Men and women bore banners advocating the casting of ballots for the $300,000 harbor bonds today and the "spotless" town faction seemed routed. The parade, starting at 5:30, ended up at the auditorium, where a "home products" dinner was served by the business men.

'ONE MORE FAREWELL' SAYS SARAH BERNHARDT

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Sarah Bernhardt is to make one more farewell trip to the United States. When she arrived at Espagne she monopolized ninety per cent of the attention.

AMBASSADOR BRINGS NO MESSAGE IS REPORT BY ROBERT J. BENDER (United Press Staff)

LONG BRANCH, Oct. 10.—That Ambassador Gerard bears no message from Germany on the subject of peace, or that he has been sent for by President Wilson to discuss the reported revival of the submarine menace, may be stated positively. Gerard's trip to this country has been made entirely at the suggestion of Secretary Lansing in order to give the ambassador a very much needed vacation. Of course there is no doubt that the President will want to know all the latest developments, both on the peace question and in regard to the submarines, but at present it seems likely that Gerard will not see Wilson before sometime next week, although his ship arrives today.

Rain last night and today added further to the gloom of bean, beet and walnut growers who have portions of their crop still liable to damage by the rain.

The prediction was made yesterday that previous rains would result in very little damage to these crops. While the precipitation of the present storm has not amounted to a great deal, it will have the effect of delaying harvesting, and delay means possible damage.

In some of the bean growing sections threshing was resumed yesterday. On the San Joaquin ranch the beans went through the threshers without being broken, a feature that was particularly pleasing to the owners.

In the west part of the county where the crop ripens later, the beans have been turned over as many as four times. They were drying out nicely with every indication that they could be put through the threshers at once without breaking. There is still hope of the weather clearing with warm sunshine in time to save a good portion of the crop exposed.

Beet farmers have been making hay while the sun shines and have been rushing the cutting of beets in the two or three days of good weather intervening since the first heavy rains.

Walnut men have also availed themselves of the good weather to gather in their product.

U. S. DESTROYERS SWEEP SEA IN EFFORT FIND KINGSTON

NEWPORT, R. I., Eleven American destroyers steaming in a line with five miles of rolling coast between them, swept the Atlantic off the coast of Nantucket, where five or six freighters were sunk by German submarines Sunday, in another effort to rescue the crew of the Kingston or the Kingstonian.

URUGUAYAN CAPTAIN THINKS "KINGSTON" A MYTH

Captain Yates of the Uruguayan steamer "P. L. M. No. 4," which rescued the crew of the British steamer Strathdene, said he believed the name "Kingston" some way when the reports were transmitted by wireless. He pointed out that all the steamers had been sunk within a comparatively small radius, and that the crews of the five ships known to have gone down, were easily and speedily found by U. S. destroyers, showing the crew that the German submarine commander was evidently taking to conform with international law, giving the crews ample time to escape to their boats. He also pointed out that it seems unreasonable that one crew could possibly be overlooked by the warships. Seventeen destroyers were in water off Nantucket at one time and if any ship named Kingston had been sunk, some trace of her crew or wreckage of some sort would surely be found. To further bear out the theory that the reporting of the word Kingston most likely was an error he pointed to the three additional ships that were reported as sunk, and proved to be untrue.

CAN NOT CONTINUE SEARCH IN THIS WEATHER

NANTUCKET, Oct. 10.—With a 40 mile-an-hour northeaster blowing, and dark cold weather, further search for the missing crew of the liner Kingston, reported sunk by a German U-boat, is prevented.

SHIPPING CIRCLES DOUBT SINKING OF KINGSTON

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The belief that only five ships were sunk by the German submarine off Nantucket grew in shipping circles today, as vague contradictory reports concerning the crew of the steamer Kingston were received. Thirty-six hours have elapsed since the Kingston is supposed to have been sunk, without one trace of the crew.

It is believed that the name of the vessel may have been misread by the wireless operator. Within the last twelve hours argument has arisen as to whether the name was Kingston or Kingstonian.

GAS LEAKAGES ARE DISCUSSED

Company's President Promises Watchfulness Of All Its Lines

At a conference of city officials and gas company officials this morning the Southern Counties Gas Company gave its word to do everything possible to prevent the tearing up of pavements in this city.

Those attending the conference were City Trustees George McPhee and J. W. Tubbs, Street Superintendent O'Brien and City Engineer Bonebrake, representing the city; F. R. Bain, president; Engineer Wade and County Manager Todd, representing the Southern Counties Gas Company.

It was explained to the gas officials that recently several holes had been cut in new streets, and that leakage from gas had killed several trees on Fourth and Sycamore streets.

Bain stated that his company is anxious to co-operate with the city in every way possible to prevent cuts in pavement. The present gas company, however, bought the old mains, and was never able to get a map showing them, and it has no data to show when they were laid. Owing to this unsatisfactory condition, the company can not tell where leaks are likely to develop.

Todd stated that the company had gone over its lines on East Third street, where paving is to be done, and finds that its pipes there are in good condition. Another inspection will be made to make certain that the steam roller will not damage any of the pipes.

GERMAN ADVANCE STILL ACTIVE ON SOUTH FRONT

BERLIN, Oct. 10.—The official report issued here today states that the Rumanian reinforcements that were rushed to the aid of regiments attempting to block the great Austro-German drive in Transylvania, have been beaten back and defeated. Losses are reported to be very heavy on the Rumanian side, but there is no official report of the combined Teutonic loss.

RUSS DESTROYER STINGS TWO SEA WASPS

CHRISTIANIA, Oct. 10.—A Russian destroyer, the name of which has not yet been made public, has succeeded in sinking two German submarines in the Baltic, and reports that it has crippled another off Murman.

CANNON'S ROAR CONTINUES ON SOMME

PARIS, Oct. 10.—There is no diminishing of the heavy bombardment of artillery along the Somme fronts. Throughout the night the roar of the great guns could be heard plainly for miles inland. The deadlock apparently must break, but still there is no let up to the constant rain of shell and shrapnel that is characterizing this is the greatest battle in the world's history.

GREEK CABINET S FORMED AT LAST

ATHENS, Oct. 10.—Despite the difficulties that have arisen since the attempted selection of the new Grecian cabinet, it is today announced that M. Lambros has succeeded in filling every position. The announcement of the new members has not yet been made, and the attitude of the people toward the new roster is to be a feature of tomorrow's news here.

TEMPERAMENTAL BUNCH ON STEAMER ECUADOR

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 10.—Temperamental mutiny is the latest thing in shipboard rebellions. On the liner Ecuador, the first ship to carry the American flag back to the Pacific, leisure Englishmen who are accustomed to leaning back on the Japanese liners and yelling "Boy," are the cause. The white waiters and stewards objected to being called "Boy" and walked out.

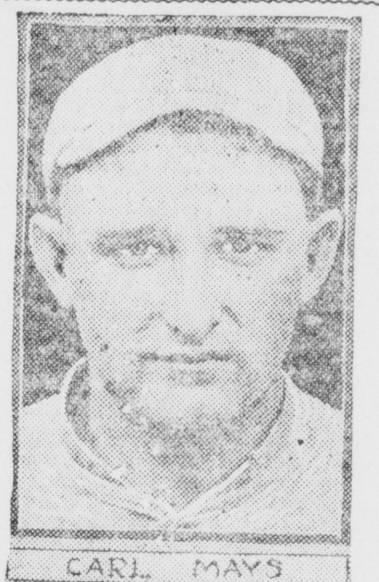

11-YEAR-OLD GIRL ASSAULTED, MURDERED

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Strangled to death with a strap used to carry books to school, 11-year-old Bella Bricker was found in the basement of a tenement on Monroe street. The little girl had been attacked, assaulted and dragged there.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 10.—If there is one popular set of baseball players in the world today it is the trolley dodgers in Brooklyn at the present moment. Not only have the Robin men regained the confidence of the local fans, but tonight the betting stands again at almost even money.

"Carrie" Carrigan was handed one of the neatest trimmings of his life on the Brooklyn grounds this afternoon, when the Dodgers, whom the dope sheets marked as down and out, returned to the field and sent the Red Sox down to a clean defeat of 4-3. It was not boys' battle that was played today, but baseball headwork from the first half of the first inning was shown in every play. The teams were in form, and the weather clear and cold. The play was snappy from start to finish. Clean fielding was the rule, and not an error was recorded.

Mays seemed to hold no secrets from the Brooklyn bunch today. They clouted the ball when they felt like it, and sacrificed when they didn't. In the third inning the Dodgers tapped him for three hits and one run. In the fourth they took three hits, and with Boston's only error brought in another score. The "Beans" were spilled in the fifth, when with two men on bases, Olson, the big California shortstop, came to the plate and cleaned the bases with a triple.

Coombs pitched a veteran's game for the Brooklyn contingent. Backed by good support, he held down the Bay State men until the sixth inning. Then he allowed a base on balls, which was followed by a triple and a single. He signalled for relief, but the credit for the victory goes to him.

Boston's last run was a homer by Gardner.

ARMY AVIATOR IS NEAR DEATH, PLUNGE

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 10.—Lieutenant J. D. von Holtzendorff of the army aviation school here had a narrow escape from death yesterday when the military aeroplane he was piloting crashed to earth near Carlsbad, forty miles north of here.

The aviator had completed repairs to his engine after having volplaned from a height of 4000 feet and was ascending again when the machine went into a "nose-dive." The plane struck the earth with a terrible impact and was partially wrecked, but the pilot escaped practically unhurt.

Today's accident was the third that has happened to army aviators in the last three weeks.

FRUIT EXCHANGE IN YEAR SELLS CITRUS FRUIT $2,450,000

which have heretofore been unknown to the majority of consumers have been demonstrated through the medium of national publications.

Claims

There have been filed against carriers during this season, for account of our shippers, $81 claims, amounting to $6928.67; $47 claims, amounting to $5753.77 were claimed for our associations during the same period.

Supply Company

During the past season the business of the Fruit Growers' Supply Company, which is owned and operated by and for the members of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange only, amounted to $4,092,865.97, an increase over the preceding season of $31,319.50. There is available for refund to members who have made purchases during the year $121,738.54 on packing-house supplies, and $37,266.10 on orchard supplies or a total of $159,004.64, which is equivalent to 5.321 per cent on the value of packing-house materials, and 3.97 per cent on the value of orchard supplies. This is in addition to a dividend of 6 per cent on the capital stock of the supply company.

Oranges

There were shipped by this exchange during September, October and November of 1915, 577 cars of Valencia which met with ready sale at very satisfactory prices and which are included in this season's business. The naval shipments amounted to 187 cars, and good prices were realized for those that were forwarded in December and early in January. Very heavy rains then occurred and following this the fruit shipped showed considerable brown rot, and heavy allowances on account of this decay were necessary.

On account of the sizes, being medium to small, our sweets and miscellaneous varieties were disposed of at good prices, owing to the fact that the bulk of the navels in Southern California ran to very large sizes.

The market on Valencias during the past spring and summer has been very satisfactory and prices have ruled very high, notwithstanding the fact that more Valencias have been shipped this year than in any preceding year in the history of the industry. We attribute these high prices to several things: the unusually prosperous condition of the country, the good eating quality of the fruit and the advertising campaign through which the Valencia has been widely advertised as a delicious summer fruit.

Lemons

The lemon market throughout the season has been most satisfactory. We had a good demand all through the winter months which enabled us to keep our supplies cleaned up, and we were able to enter the heavy picking period with practically no fruit on hand. The summer in the East was exceedingly hot and caused a heavy demand for lemons and very high prices resulted. This situation was just the reverse of that experienced last year by lemon shippers.

Change in Grading

The associations comprising this exchange have previously graded their Valencias very high. In past years it has been possible in some markets to realize for second grades from this district as much as first grades from some other districts. This being the case we felt that the second grade from this district must necessarily be equal in quality to other districts' first grades, and therefore should be packed as such, in order to give our shippers the benefit of the national advertising campaign being carried on by the exchange, on as much of their fruit as possible, which we considered a valuable asset.

Another thing that entered into the situation was the fact that grading Valencias as we previously did, our distribution was restricted, because the prices asked for our fruit, considering the grade, made it impossible to do business in all markets. In other words, there were many markets which used Sunkist fruit that were not willing to play the price asked for our first grades and while the quality of our second grades would suit their trade, the demand was for Sunkist, and prevented them from using our second grades, and we felt that in view of the rapidly increasing volume of Valencias, that it was absolutely necessary to widen our distribution as much as possible, and properly establish our brands in all markets, to keep pace with the production.

Distinct Advantage

We therefore made a change—packing our first grade as fancy, and making our previous second grade a little higher and packing it as an extra choice under the Sunkist brand. Our choice or third grade now consists of a small percentage of the fruit that was previously packed second grade, the balance consisting of fruit heretofore packed standards. On this year's crop up to the present time we have packed 55 per cent of all of our Valencias that have been shipped under the Sunkist brand as against 30 per cent for the same period last year. Since making this change, we have been able to realize as much, and in many cases more for our Extra Choice grade than first grades from other districts, which fact would indicate larger returns to our growers.

We believe you can readily see that this change has been a distinct advantage, and we feel that not only from the standpoint of returns, but from the standpoint of a wider distribution, taking into consideration our future volume of this variety, that this method of grading should be continued.

Membership

The Garden Grove Citrus Association has been formed during the past year and admitted to membership in this exchange. This association at the present time has only a small output, but bids fair to become one of our largest associations within the course of three or four years, as there is a very large acreage of young orchards in the activity of Garden Grove.

Practically all of our associations have gained in membership the past season and we can reasonably expect further increases the coming year. The sentiment of the growers toward the exchange movement and the co-operative principles for which it stands are becoming more and more pronounced each year, as is evidenced by the fact that in the past year fourteen shippers who formerly marketed through other sources and nine newly-formed associations have joined the California Fruit Growers' Exchange.

In addition to this, individual growers representing 4379 acres and more than 1560 cars of fruit have joined and shipped their fruit through established associations.

For the coming season four shippers not included in the above, who formerly marketed through other sources, have joined the exchange, and individuals representing 1600 cars of fruit have recently become members of the organization.

Conclusion

In closing I desire to state that all of our association managers have given this office their heartiest co-operation, and great credit is due them for the manner in which they have handled the fruit, which has made it possible for this office to realize the satisfactory prices that have been realized the past season for the fruit of its members.

HARBISON SAYS CALIFORNIA IS IN NEED OF TARIFF

EL CENTRO, Oct. 10.—Robert C. Harbison, Republican nominee for congress, is completing today his campaign through Imperial county and political observers are counting this region for Harbison and the Republican party in the November election.

Harbison has made a big impression throughout the county. He has talked to and personally met hundreds of people.

Imperial county, like the rest of Southern California, suffered heavily in the tariff reductions of the Democratic party for which Congressman William Kettner voted. Republicans and Progressives are united in Imperial county. Progressives are taking a leading part in the campaign for Harbison.

Harbison talks at Brawley at his night meeting tonight and goes to Riverside Wednesday. He talked last night at El Centro.

The main issues of the campaign, as plainly regarded by Harbison, are the tariff and the Mexican situation, and as he spoke here last night he appealed for the election of Charles E. Hughes as president and Hiram W. Johnson as senator, "for Republican victory in November both as to president and as to Senate and House of Representatives is essential if our country and our people are to be made fully conscious of our duties and obligations, both at home and abroad, and make ready to meet and discharge them."

Harbison made an appeal for a broader Republicanism in California.

Above Personalities

"In this presence and in this hour of decision, I make bold to say that the time is ripe for the consideration of something else than personalities in California politics. No state has more to gain from a come-back by the Republicans, nationally, with their policies which mean so much to California interests and industries. And with that much at stake, local differences and jealousies must go into the discard. The question is not where we have been or what we have done for four years, but what we propose to do as Republicans in California in 1916."

"The tariff is the most persistent issue in American politics. It is a militant measure. It is national defense in commercial warfare. It grew in this country out of conditions arising from wars here and abroad. It started with the beginning of the United States."

Tariff Essential

"The only protection the California citrus growers have is told in the tale of tears in a million stricken homes across the ocean, and it would be the same sad story for every producer in the district and in the land were not their customers working overtime to furnish munitions and supplies that make it possible for 15,000,000 men to be making the reddest history this old world ever knew. It is a commercial prosperity which is based, not upon construction but upon destruction; not on life but on death; not on happiness but upon distress; not upon progress and development and advancement, but upon ruin and want and misery."

And on the horizon we see the finish of the great war, and the men with money to invest see it. Are the relics of those battlefields, the cripples, and the poverty-stricken people to compete in the fields of Southern Europe with the recently-paid workers of our own Southern California?

Democratic Plank

"I quote from the Democratic platform of 1912, the platform that forced our Democratic congressmen to man of this great district of ours that can prosper without tariff—to vote for slashes in the protection for every California product."

"We declare it to be a fundamental principle of the Democratic party that the Federal government, under the constitution, has no right or power to impose or collect tariff duties, except for the purpose of revenue."

Turning to the foreign policy issue, Harbison said:

RELIEVE HEADACHES WITHOUT DOSING

By Applying Sloan's Liniment to Forehead You Can Stop the Severe Pains

—Many headaches are of a neuralgic origin. The symptoms of such headaches are intense and lingering pains in the brow, temples or back of the head.

There is one certain relief that has been known and recommended for years back, Sloan's Liniment. One application and the dull pain is practically gone. It is easily applied with our rubbing. Rubbing is unnecessary, as Sloan's Liniment quickly penetrates to the seat of trouble.

Aching muscles, rheumatism, lumbago, bruises, chilblains, sprains and stiff neck can also be most effectively treated with Sloan's Liniment. Clearer than mussy plasters or ointments; it does not stain the skin or clog the pores.

question in the impending campaign. We are interested in prosperity and peace at home, but we are even more interested in national honor at home and abroad.

"Three years ago it meant something to go far hence as an American citizen, but three years of equivocating, three years of peace at any price, three years of watchful waiting have brought the flag into disrepute. For as George Harvey put it lately in the North American Review, we have a president and a cabinet who—

"Promise, pause, prepare, postpone, And end by leaving things alone."

"The administration cannot be excused on the theory that the world was aflame and that it wished to avoid a step which might involve us. For eighteen months before the European war broke the horrors and indignities toward Americans continued in Mexico."

On Preparedness

On preparedness, Harbison commented:

"And how are we prepared to assume that responsibility?"

"We have just one alleged fortification in this Eleventh district, that is Fort Rosecrans, across the bay from San Diego, and it was my good fortune to be shown through it something over a year ago. After we had inspected the guns and magazines, the commanding officer informed us that he had just ammunition enough in reserve to continue firing 30 minutes, while every battleship in the world could stand off shore out of range of his guns, and reduce the fort to ruins."

BOY INJURED WHEN PLAYING FOOTBALL IS DEAD OF BROKEN BACK

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 10.—The authorities announced last night that they would conduct an investigation into the death of Allen Ross Currier, a 19-year-old high school student who died yesterday as a result of injuries he sustained while playing football with a crowd of other students.

Currier was operated upon Sunday after an X-ray showed that he was suffering from a broken back in two places. The youth had not been continued very badly hurt at first but continued complaint resulted in calling a surgeon and an operation Saturday night. Currier never rallied from the anesthetic.

A week ago he was injured in a football game at the high school ground and it is believed that the shock of this injury was the cause of his more serious hurts Saturday as he was playing with a few boys at the F. E. Page home at No. 375 Sixteenth street. In making a plunge for a touchdown he collided with Charles Taylor. He became limp but did not seem to be badly hurt.

He boy came here a year ago from Boston with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Currier. It is declared that at a year ago his back was injured in a similar manner.

LAUNDERS BEWAIL LACK OF GERMAN DYES

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 10.—"What shall we do, what shall we do," is the wall of the members of the Launderers' National Association which is in session here.

The wall is directed at the tendency of the colors dyers are using nowadays to run all over when fancy duds hit the tub. The laundresses want a few more submarines to dock quick if they are to retain the good will of their patrons.

CHURCH SERVICE OWNS 'OBEY,' 'ENDOW' IN MARRIAGE

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 10.—The Ten Commandments, the Marriage Ceremony and the Lord's Prayer as they have stood through the ages are to be changed by the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, which convenes here tomorrow if the reports of committees and sub-committees are endorsed.

In the marriage ceremony the committee will recommend that the word "obey" in the bride's promise be replaced by "keep," that the giving away of the bride be omitted entirely and the groom's promise to "endow" the bride "with all his worldly goods," be eliminated.

A committee will recommend that the commandments be shortened by the omission of the reason for their observance. The recommendation will be based on the fact that the reasons were peculiar to the life of the Israelites and that changed modern ways have robbed the arguments of much of their weight.

The committee on revising the Lord's prayer will recommend the elimination of the words, "For Thine is the Kingdom and the Power and the Glory forever." In requesting the omission the committee will say the words constitute a part of the Doxology added by early translators and that they are not in the original text of Holy Scriptures. The omission would make the prayer identical with the Roman Catholic version. The same committee will probably ask the elimination from the Book of Common Prayers the prayers for "Jews, infidels and Turks." The proposal is based on the ground that it is unwarranted to class the Jews with the others.

A canon prohibiting marriage when either party to the contract has a wife or husband living and has been divorced for any cause arising after marriage will be presented for action. Many notable churchmen gathered here today for the opening.

MOTHER! GIVE CHILD

'SYRUP OF FIGS' IF
TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious, Clean Little Liver and Bowels

—Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, mother: See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Advertisement.

IDEAL GAS FURNACE

This furnace burns city gas for fuel and is so constructed that the hot gas is compelled to travel a long distance over heavy sheet iron surfaces, before it escapes. These surfaces extract all of the heat from the gas, so that when the fumes escape to the chimney, the heat has been extracted and the waste pipe is the coolest on the furnace. This is just the reverse of other furnaces, where the smoke pipe is the hottest. The radiated heat is mixed with fresh air and delivered in the house in the usual manner. This heated air is fresh, pure and entirely free from gas fumes and is heated to a temperature that causes it to travel readily.

Get the Habit of Drinking Hot Water
Before Breakfast
Says we can't look for feel right with the system full of poisons.

"Millions of folks bathe internally now instead of loading their system with drugs. "What's an inside bath?" you say. Well, it is guaranteed to perform miracles if you could believe these hot water enthusiasts.

There are vast numbers of men and women who, immediately upon arising in the morning, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is a very excellent health measure. It is intended to flush the stomach, liver, kidneys and the thirty feet of intestines of the previous day's waste, sour bile and indigestible material left over in the body which if not eliminated every day, become food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels, the quick result is poisons and toxins which are then absorbed into the blood causing headache, bilious attacks, foul breath, bad taste, colds, stomach trouble, kidney misery, sleeplessness, impure blood and all sorts of ailments.

People who feel good one day and badly the next, but who simply can not get feeling right are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to make anyone a real crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so limestone phosphate and hot water act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. It is vastly more important to bathe on the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

HOW THE GREAT CONTEST WILL BE CLOSED NEXT SATURDAY EVENING

Rules Governing Closing Days Are Announced Today—Contestants Should Familiarize Themselves With Every Detail and Govern Themselves Accordingly.

There Is No Possibility of Any Misunderstanding If Contestants and Their Friends Observe the Rules—Closing Days Will Be Busy Days For All Concerned.

THE JUDGES

A committee of five, composed of a representative from each of the five Santa Ana banks, have consented to act as the judges and will have full charge of the final count of the ballots in the Register's Popularity Subscription Contest on Saturday evening, October 14.

The following named gentlemen comprise the committee:

H. T. RUTHERFORD,
DR. A. R. HERVEY,
HARRY HANSEN,
L. M. DOYLE,
N. A. BEALS.

HOW THE AWARDS OF PRIZES WILL BE MADE

The rules governing the closing days of the contest are announced this far in advance, that all contestants may have an opportunity of familiarizing themselves with the details.

If there is anything that is not clear to the candidates and their friends, they are requested to take it up with the contest department at once.

All subscriptions must be turned in by 8 o'clock Saturday evening, October 14.

Those who mail in subscriptions should be sure that they allow ample time for them to reach the Register office before the closing hour.

Out-of-town contestants as well as those in the city are most cordially invited to be present and their friends are also assured of a cordial welcome.

Friday morning at 10 o'clock the votes of all the candidates will be canvassed by the judges and compared with the vote standing as shown in the paper.

The judges will then seal the ballot box and take charge of the keys.

The ballot box will not be opened again until the final count is begun at 8 o'clock Saturday evening.

This assures every contestant that all votes turned in after 10 a. m. Friday will be polled with absolute secrecy.

Any subscriptions that candidates turn in after the hour of sealing the ballot box will be placed in an envelope and sealed before being deposited in the ballot box.

Promptly at 8 p. m. Saturday the ballot box will be emptied of its contents and the counting will begin. This will be in charge of the judges assisted by members of the Register staff.

One of the judges will examine each ballot and call the number of votes, which will then be verified by a second member of the board of judges, the votes will then be added on a Burroughs adding machine.

Awarding the Capital Prizes
After all the votes have been verified and added, the totals will be footed up.

The contestant who has the largest number of votes over all, will then be declared the winner of the First Grand Capital Prize, the $1200 Studebaker Six Touring Car.

The contestant who has the second largest number of votes over all, will be declared the winner of the Second Grand Capital Prize, the $500 in Cash.

Awarding the District Prizes
After awarding the two capital prizes the judges will then proceed to determine the winners of the district cash prizes in the following manner:

The winners of the two capital prizes will of course be eliminated from participation in the district prizes.

PIMPY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel—there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Ballot Box Notes
Only four more days to work for votes and every moment from now on counts.

The slightest slip means the loss of hundreds of dollars to some of the leaders and of lesser amounts to those below.

There are none who can foretell who the winners will be and not one of the aspirants can be sure of success.

All contestants are admonished that the few remaining days will fly by as though on wings and that every available hour should be made to yield added votes.

And remember this, over-confidence has lost many a battle that might have been easily won.

Better to have a few votes too many than to fall a few short of your goal.

The greatest successes have been won by persistent effort in the face of adversity.

Take for your slogan: "I can and I will," work with all the energy and enthusiasm you can command—you will then succeed.

Free Coupons
Remember that no coupons "good for 10 votes," will be counted after 10 a. m. Thursday, October 12.

By an oversight the free coupon appeared in yesterday's paper and that one will be counted with the others, but no coupons will be printed hereafter and none will be counted after 10 a. m. Thursday.

CRAWFISH ARE FREED BY A GAME WARDEN

VENTURA, Oct. 9.—Crawfish to the value of hundreds of dollars have been freed and the traps destroyed within the past few days by Game Warden Barnett.

Fishermen, in anticipation of the opening of the season on the 15th, have previously set their traps to have them completely filled by the first hour of the season. Officers from the fish and game department made a tour of inspection yesterday, and decided that former years did not count and that the fishermen might as well have an innovation, which it certainly was for the ambitious crawfish hunter.

PUBLIC SHOULD ACCORD FAIR TREATMENT PRISONERS

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 10.—Practically all of the delegates to the Congress of the American Prison Association, in session here, today concurred with W. G. MacLaren, superintendent of the Oregon Prisoners' Aid Society, who said prisoners should be closely scrutinized prior to release so that mental defects may be taken care of. He pointed out the defectives released speedily go back to crime.

"We should take care of the defectives," said MacLaren, "and should demand that the police and peace officers give other released prisoners a chance to get along. They are all too ready now to hound them back to prison."

Those who spoke at the meeting this morning were Rev. D. Miller of Western Penitentiary, Allegheny, Pa.; Rev. S. J. Dowling, state's prison, Wampum, Wis., and Rev. Robert Walker of the Massachusetts State Reformatory.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

—You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

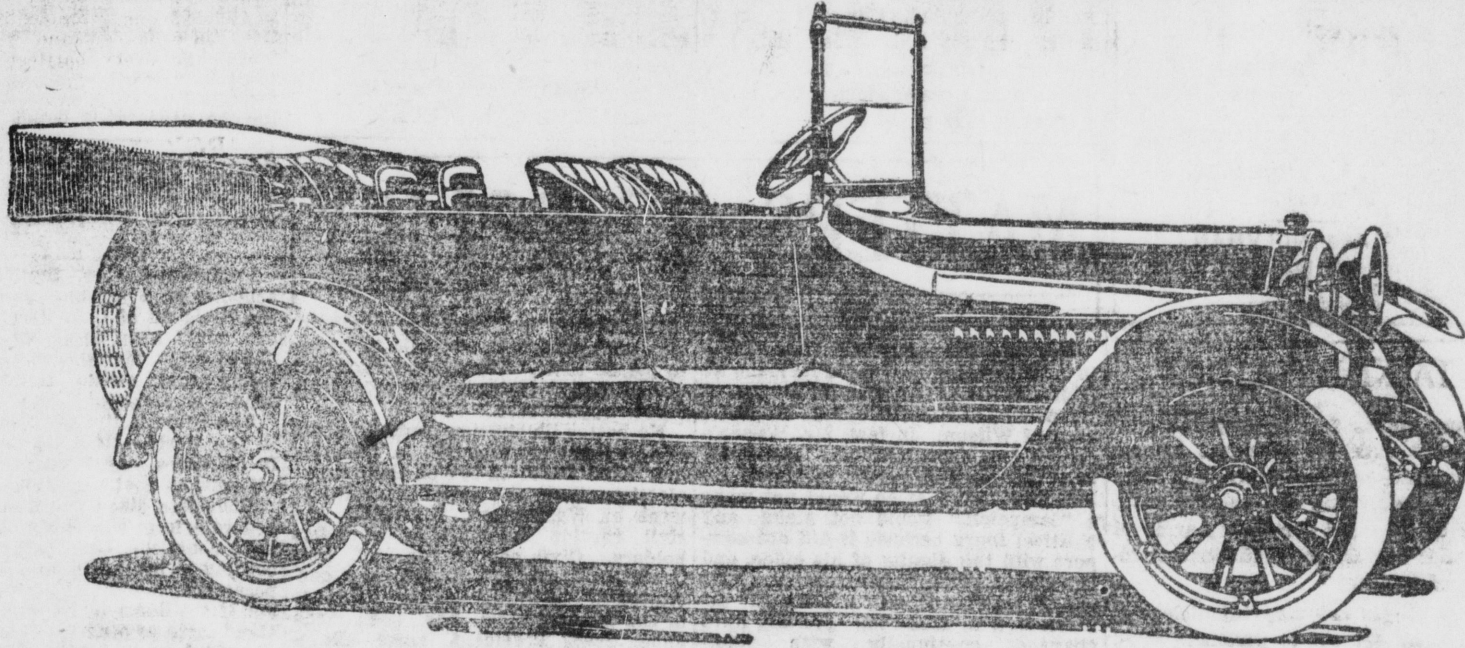

This preparation is a toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Advertisement.

TALKING POLITICS

Many voters feel a temperamental sympathy with the elements belonging to some political party, and from that sympathy you can not pry them loose by the most convincing array of statistics nor the most effective statement of issues.

Most people are very judicious if they really set out to persuade some one. Those engaged in an argument fire sweeping statements at each other. They forget that any man who can capture a big nomination must have great ability and that he is usually sincere and personally honest.

Yet people ought to talk politics a great deal, if we are to have an intelligent citizenship. Many people don't do so, because they are too timid to express contrary views. They say "Yes, yes" to whatever may be said. They are fearful of inability to hold up their end of a debate. This is a very colorless kind of citizenship.

It takes a great deal of newspaper reading to make one effective in argument. No one is convinced by mere general statements that some candidate is a demagogue or a grafter. The only thing that convinces people is statement of facts. The man who fills his mind with the current story of politics, who quotes facts and expresses differing views good naturedly, performs a public service. He helps on toward good government, no matter to what party he belongs.

SHORTAGE OF CATTLE

The American Bankers' Association, at its Kansas City convention, has been considering the alarming decrease in cattle production. Much sentiment was developed in favor of an investigation of the subject by Congress.

Congressional investigations commonly provide simply a lot of black covered government reports which few people read. However, this is an urgent subject, that some responsible authority should take up. Meat prices will keep climbing until more cattle are raised.

There is a difference of opinion among experts whether it pays to keep cattle on the average small farm. Little progress has been made at restoring them to the many thousand farms through the eastern and central and southern states where they used to be kept. Yet at a recent investigation by "Country Life in America" seemed to show that cattle raising does pay. In one typical case in the State of Delaware, a profit of $370 was made in eighteen weeks on forty-six head of cattle, with manure enough to fertilize thirty-six acres of cantaloupes.

One trouble is that the modern eastern farmer is bewildered by the many suggestions of the new things he ought to take up. After reading them all, his head swims. He decides to keep along in the old way, at which he has been doing quite well.

It would seem as if the great corporations concerned in meat production should be interested to work for a bigger supply. They must see that meat consumption per capita will surely fall off at present prices. If they would start a lot of demonstration farms, they could show the farmer just how cattle could be raised most profitably. Probably they could prove that it is possible for the small farmer to make a success of it.

When asked why they do not raise more cattle, farmers usually say that labor and feed and shelter cost too much. In the most fertile sections land can probably be used to better advantage in raising crops. But elsewhere there are enormous quantities of half used soil where the expense for feed must be greatly reduced.

THE ISSUES OF NOVEMBER

NO. 1

(Special Political Correspondence of the Register.)

We have seen that the first half of the Wilson administration was one of great business and industrial disaster, blocking all economic progress. What was the cause? Clearly it was the rash attempt at an upheaval of the entire commercial fabric within the short space of one year. The headstrong Wilson administration never considered counsel of common sense.

Many sagacious Democrats after Congress had passed the federal reserve and tariff acts, urged that it be allowed to go home, so that business could recover from the strain of constant adjustment to new and strange conditions. But no Congress must stay in Washington and keep the country in upheaval for many more months, while a new anti-trust law was being enacted. Has any one been able to buy any trust-made article any cheaper as the result of this law, for which such a tremendous price of un-settlement was paid?

The entire business of the country was kept in suspense while the tariff, currency, and anti-trust laws were being passed. Business simply stopped. If the tariff makers had been content with moderate reductions, say half of those provided by the Underwood law, it would have had a chance of remaining for a period of years on the statute books. But the existing law attempts impossibilities. American manufacturers are enterprising and American workmen are capable. But the war in Europe has shown that there is marvelous capacity and efficiency in Europe, perhaps more of both qualities than here.

If the European producer can buy his labor and materials for half the price, there is nothing in the American air or the American brain that can bridge the difference. It simply means that such goods will be made in Europe while our workpeople walk the streets looking for new jobs.

MATTERS OF POLICY

Fresno Republican

Probably there has been no example in a generation of a President so trimming his sails with reference to the coming of a new election, as in the case of Wilson. In fact, Mr. Wilson's course has been markedly "political" in substance and careful in form. He has protested that he would not make a "campaign," would not make any political tours because it did not comport with the dignity of his office, and has protested much that he would not let politics influence his political actions. Yet, in fact, his policies have changed continually with reference to the coming election. He sneered at preparedness until he found that the country demanded preparedness. He refused to protect the Mexican border until he found that the country demanded protection for the people against Mexican bandits. He told people not to get excited over the war in Europe, and only got excited himself when he found that his policy was very generally condemned.

One of the most common criticisms of President Wilson has been that his policies, right or wrong, have not been persisted in long enough to know whether they were right or wrong. It has been pointed out that he has "wobbled" on about every big issue that has been presented to him. Perhaps the explanation is that he has changed his reading of the popular mind, from time to time, and that the wobbling is due to his altered conception of what the people wanted.

If so, he has failed to understand the ultimate meaning of democracy. The people must be pleased, but the only way they can be pleased in the long run is to choose men who have determination of character and are willing to stand or fall by the result of their judgments. The people approve more of a man they turn down for persisting in a course than they do of a man who is too servile in trying to please them. Woodrow Wilson has utterly failed to be a "leader" of his fellow countrymen.

No better illustration could be given of the President's course in changing his policies with an eye on the general election, than the order issued last week at Washington regarding the civil service examination of office holders. Civil service is no new thing. It has been agitated for a generation in the United States. Progress in the merit system has been made under every President since Cleveland's first term. The present Democratic administration is the first for thirty years to create many new offices without entering them under classification for civil service examination.

The National Civil Service Reform League, a non-partisan organization, which has been critical of Republican and Democratic administrations alike, very vigorously protested a year ago against the course of the Wilson heads of departments at Washington, on the civil service, but without effect. But now that Charles E. Hughes has been pointing out the violations of the spirit of the civil service by Wilson appointees, in his campaign speeches, there is a change. Secretary Redfield last week transferred to the civil service list all the trade commissioners, commercial agents, experts and special agents employed by the Department of Commerce. This is a branch of the public service that has grown greatly since the trade changes caused by the great war. The men appointed to these positions took the examinations according to law. But they were never protected from arbitrary removal until the failure to do so had been made a campaign issue. Here is a specific example of the effect of campaign agitation of an abuse.

WHAT LIQUOR TRAFFIC COSTS

Judge W. H. Waste of the superior court of Alameda county, recently discussed at length the economic loss which he declared was annually suffered by the taxpayers of Alameda county as one result of the traffic in alcoholic liquors. Quoting from the annual financial report of the Board of Supervisors of the county for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1916, Judge Waste stated that the amount expended during the year for charities and corrections was $395,612, "about $1 in each $11 dollars of the income of the county, which amounted to $4,582,862."

"Nearly one-tenth of the total expenditures of Alameda county," the speaker said, "went to charities and corrections. These expenditures on account of crime, pauperism, insanity and dependent children come largely from the liquor traffic and there is no getting away from it. The saloons come to the rescue and pay back into the treasury of the county $16,428, which helps some."

Juvenile Delinquents
Judge Waste invited special attention to the item of $44,084 for the care of juvenile delinquents who went through the juvenile court, and who were committed to institutions on orders made out by one or another of the judges of the superior court. The judge instanced one single case of this sort which came before him on Thursday of last week, and which would cost the county for custodial care at least $462. "The father was a drunkard when the child was born, though when he married he held a responsible position with a great corporation. The mother, a woman of evident beauty, was compelled to go out and work for her living; the child was neglected and wandered away and became bad."

Italian Children Helped
"On Friday in the same court," the speaker continued, "Judge Donahue committed to different institutions five children of one Italian woman, having altogether a family of twelve children, and ordered the taxpayers of the county to pay $55 monthly for their support, a total of $660 a year, and of probably $6000 before the county gets rid of them."

"The father," said Judge Waste, "is a low, degraded drunkard." Judge Donahue, in reporting the incident to Judge Waste, spoke of the great cost of caring for delinquent and dependent children as "alarming" and Judge Waste described conditions as "appalling," but told Judge Donahue that "the people are used to it and it has been going on for years." "And what is true of Alameda county," added the speaker, "is true of fifty-four counties throughout the state."

Big Grocery Bill
Judge Waste further instanced the grocery bill of the county on account of outside relief and said this had reached a total of $55,789 during the last year. "Practically all of this," he added, "went to homes wrecked by drunkenness."

No corporation would be content to stand such an economic loss of $400,000 during a single fiscal year, yet the taxpayers of the county have been very content all these years. Do we have to be knocked insensible before we take action? Crime is rampant with us. We are suffering large economic loss. These are hard blows and the people are waking up. If California votes as the men feel, and as they speak, California is going dry in 1916."

For the Highway Bonds

Los Angeles Times: Life in the open is enjoyed nowhere in the world more than in California, the land of fruit, flowers and sunshine, of the bungalow, the automobile and good roads. During the last six years the state has expended $18,000,000 in bond money on state highways. These roads are a series of main arteries uniting the northern and southern sections of the state, with laterals that connect the valleys and the mountains with the coast. But $18,000,000 was not sufficient to build the whole of these very necessary arteries in a state of such magnificent distances as California. The first bond issue was the beginning; it was sufficient for a number of main lines, but before the benefit from these can be secured other connecting links must be constructed.

For this construction a second bond issue has been deemed necessary. On the ballot to be voted in the November election is a proposed ratification of a second issue of $15,000,000 in state bonds to complete the good roads system of which the beginning has been so auspicious. By building the roads the state is developing its natural resources just as a railroad develops a new territory through which it passes. The automobile has brought back the romance of country travel, and motor traction has proved a powerful incentive to the development of tens of thousands of broad and fertile California acres.

Reckoned from a strictly financial standpoint the construction of the new highways will mean a marked lessening of taxes to the counties affected. As those laterals open new acreage to intensive cultivation they increase the assessable value of that acreage. Citizens of Los Angeles know how suburban property leaps in value when it is pierced by a street car line. Los Angeles city and county owe much of their wonderful development during the last twenty years to their splendid systems of traction lines. State highways perform a similar service for country property. State tax experts assert that the assessed value of California acreage property has already been increased at least $10,000,000 by reason of the state highways now completed. That is just the beginning.

California needs these additional state highways. They will pay for themselves through the increase in the value of the land of the communities through which they pass; they will pay for themselves a second time in the reduced cost of foodstuffs due to cheaper transportation, and a third time through the increased tourist travel by rendering more accessible the scenic beauties of this, the greatest of all nature's wonderlands. Vote for the good roads bonds.

With Malice Toward None

By Henry James

The Bible
Compliments to the gentlemanly scholars who propose to take out of the Bible all of that which Billy Sunday might term pep, by eliminating "hell" and "damnation" and other terms that strike their cultivated senses as jarring.

The Bible is the most popular book in the world. Its following constantly increases. As literature it is magnificent, as poetry matchless.

Doubtless since the book assumed concrete form standards of expression have changed. Considered merely according to the worldly knowledge they possessed, the ancient wise men could not if set down in a modern world, stand forth as oracles. They would be surprised to find that this globe, regarded by them as the center of the universe, has since been more aptly described as a mote dancing on a sunbeam. All of which does not matter in the least.

In reading the Bible, modern intelligence makes allowance for changed conditions, and it does not believe that the book could be improved by being made over. Moreover, people feel a personal interest in the subject, deeming that the Bible is their own, and that nobody has authority to alter it.

Troubles

"Never talk about your troubles," says a wise man I have read.
"Never talk about your troubles, but your neighbors' faults instead." But the wise sometimes is foolish, and his brain is fagged, and halts. Or he'd known our deepest troubles are these very neighbors' faults.

Love's Lucre Lost

A San Franciscan complains that after he had lavished $600,000 on his bride in six months, she swatted him with a high-heeled shoe.

This department has nothing to do with family quarrels. But wasn't the lady hasty?

An Abundance

Charles Schwab is of opinion that an income of $12,000 a year is sufficient. Of course his personal conduct is not guided by this opinion. The sum mentioned probably is less than his own income for a week. Nevertheless, the opinion is pretty sound.

To the average citizen the thought of $12,000 a year is as much a dream as a million a minute, which is to say that it is purely fantastic. Several millions of hard-working folk could be rounded up by the census man and found ready to declare an annual $1000 nothing to provoke any sneering rejection from them.

Recklessness

Recklessness is courage, but courage gone crazy, and thus is not to be cultivated. There was a fellow down in the Yosemite the other day who had the malady to an annoying degree. Overhanging Rock is one of the spectacles of the valley. A fall from it would be thousands of feet to a stop. It is so narrow that only the clearest-headed may venture out upon it on foot with safety. A few years ago one chap ventured to the extreme end and there stood on his hands. The best he got out of it was to be called a fool, a term that hereby is approved.

But the more recent trifle with death was even worse. He drove to the end in his automobile, the width barely permitting this. And there he sat as though a creature to be admired, rather than one whom to hit with a brick would have afforded the normal observer joy.

Asking Consideration

The other day a woman with the faculty of having startling adventures in her automobile used the machine to kill a man, a stranger to her at that. Nobody desires to be too severe with a lady, and yet it would seem quite proper to ask this one not to do such a thing again.

POLITICIAN VS. PATRIOT

President Garfield left two sons. One of them is a politician. His name is James and he is supporting Mr. Hughes. The other son, Harry, is president of Williams College and is an ardent supporter of President Wilson for re-election, declaring him to be the most able President we have had since the Civil War.

Gifford Pinchot is a politician and a blind follower of the erratic Mr. Roosevelt. He is supporting Mr. Hughes. Amos Pinchot is a New York lawyer, philanthropist and capitalist. He is not a politician, but is an earnest advocate of civic reform and progressive legislation. He is actively advocating the re-election of President Wilson. In a recent public announcement he declared that only the rich would plunge our nation into war, and continued:

"This ashamed-of-my-country attitude is wearing to the patience of thoughtful Americans. As a matter of fact the United States, except in the eyes of a few rather aggressive Americans, and a good many foreigners, who have been blinded by the fear and suffering of the war, is looked upon throughout the world as having played a very sane and honorable part. Nothing but a very skillful and patriotic handling of the situation by Mr. Wilson could have kept us out of most serious complications. The war party in the United States is essentially a moneyed or leisure-class party. Ordinary people are too near to the realities of life to be anxious to make the sacrifices of war, or to indulge in international strutting. The average American does not want to go to war, unless it is a matter of life and death to him, and he does not want to punish Mr. Wilson for allowing him to remain at home and mind his own business."

Mr. Bacon and Mr. Calder were the candidates for Republican nomination for United States Senator at the recent primary election in New York. Mr. Bacon spent three times as much money in his campaign as did Mr. Calder. He had the active support of the "old guard" and of Mr. Roosevelt and adopted the latter's program of violently abusing President Wilson and his administration. Mr. Calder was known as a consistent Progressive and adopted a sane and patriotic method of campaign, and he was nominated by a handsome majority. This is not the only instance of a candidate trying to win by abusing President Wilson, and it will not be the only instance of such methods being resented by the voters and the candidate defeated.

Doings In Social and Club Circles

CIVICS CLUB

Enthusiasm Shown, Seven New Women on Roll; $100 For Playground

The first meeting of the Woman's Civics Club for the new year, was held on its regular meeting day—last Saturday afternoon in the council chamber of the city hall. What was lacking in numbers was more than made up by good, wholesome interest and a very good meeting was the result.

Seven new members were enrolled during the afternoon, with a promise of several more, which speaks very well for the future of this club the coming year.

On motion duly made and unanimously carried, the Woman's Civics Club pledged $100 to start a fund to equip a playground for the city of Santa Ana. A committee of women was elected to consult with the heads of various clubs of this city to further this grand project and it is the hope of this Woman's Civics Club to soon see the fruits of this worthy ambition. Any one desiring further information, or to augment this fund may communicate with Mrs. Emma Barnes, Mrs. E. M. Nealley, Miss Genevieve Atkinson, the supervisor of playgrounds in the city school, or the club's president, Mrs. J. William Sackman.

Mrs. Lillian Akin was elected as a delegate to attend the convention of woman's clubs to be held in Garden Grove October 21, 1916, and Mrs. Clara Watson was chosen as alternate.

After the short business session, Rev. A. T. O'Rear addressed the assembly, his subject being, "The Welfare of the Boy," and as usual, his good thoughts went direct to the hearts of his listeners. It was such a good talk, meant so much to each and every one—something for each to take home and profit by.

Miss Atkinson followed with some helpful words along the line of her work as superior of playgrounds in this city's schools and was thoroughly enjoyed and made every one present feel that the motion just passed was certainly a long step in the very best direction for the moral welfare of the boys and girls of Santa Ana.

After dinner the merry party went to the West End where they enjoyed the program. Miss Grubb will be greatly missed from her circle of young friends, who will, however, hope to see her often during week ends.

Miss Pentecost's guests included Misses Grubb, Christine Watson, Margaret Lyon, Ardis Burns and Marguerite Tedford.

LIVES OF SINGERS

Told In Interesting Sketches At First Meeting of Music Section

The Music Section of the Elbell held a very interesting meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. A. Winkler. Sketches of the lives of three opera singers were given, with Victrola records reproducing their voices very accurately in some of their most famous roles. Two composers with selections from their compositions were also studied.

The program was as follows: Sketch of the life of Offenbach, composer of "The Love Tales of Hoffman," with an explanation of this masterpiece, was given by Mrs. J. T. McElree. This was followed by the famous "Barcarolle" from this opera, delightfully rendered by Mr. Irving German on the violin and Mrs. J. T. McElree on the piano.

Mrs. A. J. Padgham played exquisitely "Evening," "Krakowiac" and "The Minuet" by Paderewski, prefacing her rendition by interesting descriptions of the music selected. Sketches and interesting notes of the lives of Caruso and John McCormack were read by Mrs. J. E. Tillotson, followed by a Victrola record by McCormack, "I Hear You Calling Me" and one by Caruso, "Vesti la giubba" from the opera Pagliacci. The life of Tetrizina was given by Mrs. McElree with a record of her rendition of the mad scene from Lucia, "Dolce Suono."

Mrs. Winkler hospitably invited the music section to make her home their meeting place for the year, which was gratefully accepted, the next meeting to be the second Monday in November, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Campbell to be chairman of the program committee.

Upon their return from Fullerton, the wedding party was met by a company of relatives at the bride's home, 510 East Washington avenue, and given a shower of rice and good wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Pond will leave Saturday for San Diego on a honeymoon trip and will be at home to their friends after October 15th.

The marriage is the culmination of a romance begun here two years ago when Miss Poole was visiting here from Herrin, Ill. Mr. Pond later went East and visited the young woman who is now his bride.

The young couple have many friends here, who will wish the well in their new home in Santa Ana, where the groom is in the employ of the Standard Oil Company.

UGH! ACID STOMACH, SOURNESS, HEARTBURN, GAS OR INDIGESTION

The Moment "Pape's Diapiesin" Reaches the Stomach All Distress Goes

—Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, jot this down: Pape's Diapiesin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered, you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapiesin" is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapiesin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations or undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.—Advertisement.

POSTMASTERS' MEETING

The annual convention of third and fourth class postmasters will be held at Redondo Beach October 19-21.

Again the hand of death has entered the hospitable home of Wm. McGreavy, 1111 East First street. Only nine days after the death of Mrs. McGreavy, Martin Henriksen, who had made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McGreavy for eleven years, was called to the Great Beyond.

It is sad that a young man, scarcely 35 years of age, should be untimely cut down when it would seem that he should be in early manhood's prime. We are reminded of the quotation from Cardinal Wolsey's farewell address: "Thus wastes man; to day he puts forth the tender leaves of hope, but tomorrow comes a blighting frost, and when he thinks full surely his greatness is ripening, nips him in the bud."

Martin was a native of Denmark, and came to America about fifteen years ago. He lived in South Dakota for a few years, and in the spring of 1905 came to Santa Ana, and at once obtained work at his trade as cabinet-maker, with S. H. Pendleton Lumber & Mill Company. He had spent five years learning his trade before leaving the old country, and was a first-class mechanic. When plans were sent to his work bench the work was turned out to match the plans to a dot. In the spring of 1910 he received from Denmark the news of his step-mother's death. Soon afterwards he made a trip back to his native country to visit his father and sister. Returning to Santa Ana the following fall he at once resumed work at the Pendleton company's mill. Recently he had been at the Griffith mill.

Martin was honest and square in his dealings with everybody, and no one who knew him could doubt his integrity.

His funeral service was conducted by Rev. A. T. O'Rear at Smith & Tutill's undertaking parlors, from where a large concourse of his friends proceeded to the Fairhaven cemetery.

TO HELP WOMEN

After terrible sufferings, numberless women have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and recovered from ailments peculiar to their sex. Many of these, who cannot bear that other women should suffer as they did without knowing what to do, have written letters telling their experience to be published to the world. These honest, helpful stories are constantly appearing in the newspapers. Read them, ailing women, they are written with no motive but your good.—Advertisement.

USED IT ELEVEN YEARS

—There is one remedy that for many years has given relief from coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. It is probably the best known family cough medicine in the world and because it contains no opiates is strongly recommended for children as well as adults. Mrs. Chas. Rietz, Allen Mills, Pa., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar for eleven years and I would not be without it." It promptly relieves hoarseness, tickling throat, bronchial coughs, inflammation and congested membranes and permits refreshing sleep. Rowley Drug Co.—Advertisement.

FULLERTON PEEPER IS ALSO SOME SPRINTER

FULLERTON, Oct. 10.—In a wild chase through yards and alleys, a Peeping Tom Sunday night eluded Mr. Davis, living on Malvern avenue, and escaped.

Sighting the man peering into a window of the Fay Beldon home, adjoining his home, Davis dashed out of doors. Hearing his approach, the man fled and finally outdistained his pursuer.

This is the fifth or sixth time that the man has been observed along that street, according to Marshal French. Twice he followed Mrs. H. C. Herron, who operates a confectionery stand with her husband, and peered into the window of her home.

He was detected once, his face against the window, as Mrs. Herron raised the blind and put out the light.

AMUSEMENTS

At the West End
Sessue Hayakawa, the noted Japanese actor, will be seen at the West End Theater tonight and tomorrow in the Jesse L. Lasky production of "The Honorable Friend," written especially for him by Elizabeth McGaffey and prepared for the screen by Eva Unsell, has long been considered by his fellow dramatic artists as one of the greatest actors on the screen. It was only recently, however, that he attracted the attention of the theater-going public. This was accomplished when he was seen in support of Fannie Ward in the Lasky production of "The Cheat." Shortly after that, in answer to popular demand, he was starred in a Japanese story, "Alien Souls," and again repeated his success of the former production. In "The Honorable Friend," he has the role of a young Japanese in America, and it is said to be one of the most unusual in which he has appeared.

Hayakawa is surrounded by a cast of unusual excellence, including such distinguished artists as Tsuru Aoki, Raymond Hatton and Billy Elmer.

Fairbanks at Clune's

Surprises, rollicking humor, dramatic complication and dramatic thrills feature the big film production, "Manhattan Madness," which was given its first presentation at Clune's last night.

Douglas Fairbanks and Jewel Carmen are the stars of the cast and both added to their popularity among local fans.

Comparison of eastern and western life is the life of the play.

It is a rushing, dashing story of a young westerner who goes east with the conviction that nothing exciting ever happens east of the Mississippi and who gets the thrill of his life in New York City. Popping pistols, trap doors, gagging and fake stabbing affairs in a New York house give the westerner a real touch of the life he had been unaccustomed to in the east, and fully satisfied him that thrills may be had in other western life.

COMPANY L BOYS ARE HIKING FOR HOME; DUE L. A. SATURDAY

3000 Men to Be Mustered Out At Exposition Park Instead of Sacramento

Company L and other companies of the California militia are hiking for home. According to information received at Los Angeles yesterday, the soldier boys left Fort Huachuca yesterday for Nogales, where they will enter Thursday for Los Angeles, arriving Saturday. The boys covered sixteen miles in the day's march.

Arrangements have been completed for mustering out the companies at Exposition Park in Los Angeles, instead of sending them to Sacramento. There are 3000 men in the returning regiments and it will take at least three weeks to complete the work. The returning contingent of the federalized National Guard of California consists of the First and Seventh Regiments of Infantry, Third Squadron of Cavalry, First Battalion of Field Artillery, Ambulance Company No. 1 and

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat If You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Trouble

—Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush out the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.—Advertisement.

Field Hospital No. 1. Each man will be paid in full before discharged, it being estimated $35,000 will be required for each regiment.

Capt. H. A. Hannigan, mustering-out officer, and upon whose recommendation Exposition Park was selected as the place for mustering out, spoke yesterday in the very highest terms of the California boys.

"They are good soldiers," said he. "A high standard of discipline was necessary in the work which they were called upon to do. They responded to a man. The experience has been beneficial to each one of the men and the general result is entirely satisfactory. Should they be again called, they are ready."

The regiment, under the command of Col. W. G. Schreiber, is composed of Companies from Los Angeles, Long Beach, Santa Monica, Santa Ana, Riverside, Pasadena, Redlands, San Bernardino and Pomona. In addition to the "doughboys" the regiment boasts of a field hospital corps and a machine gun company. They were accompanied by Battery A, First Field Artillery, in command of Capt. Jesse McComas.

Many Will Lose Vote
The militia boys will have returned to their respective headquarters before the election on November 7.

However, it is believed many failed to register before their departure for the border in February, and will lose their vote by reason of this fact.

Registration closed last Saturday and there is no provision of law by which the boys may register after the closing date.

The law does provide that any one absent from home may go before a judge or notary public and make affidavit, but it is not likely that this precaution was taken by any of the soldier boys while in camp on the border.

It is known that some members of Co. L will lose their vote.

'HELLO BILL' IS THE WORD AS CARNIVAL OPENS

Several hundred big and little "Bills" will march the streets of Santa Ana this evening in the official opening of the Carnival which will be the center of attraction for the entire county the remainder of this week.

The big event, staged for the benefit of the charity fund of the local lodge, will be opened on schedule time, notwithstanding the inclement weather.

The members of the order will gather at the lodge room and at 7:25 will march to the Carnival grounds, the route being from the hall on Sycamore to Fourth, east on Fourth to Bush, south on Bush to Third, where a session of the Sunset Court will be held.

In the common vernacular of the "Bills" the Sunset Court is a kangaroo court. Prisoners in irons will be haled before the court for crimes committed within the jurisdiction of the court, and which are serious under the code. The Chief of Police and other officers are taking every precaution against assault in an effort to free the men complained against. There will be some real sport in this opening feature, which will be staged in the presence of the public. The hour scheduled for the opening of the court session is 7:30 and he who misses this will be short on a bushel of fun.

And then—well, there will be plenty of amusement features on the pike. The Foley & Burke shows are there, and the general public knows what this means. Foley & Burke have been here before and they have never disappointed.

There is the dog and pony circus, with the dog and monkey hotel, in which dogs and monkeys of all nations are introduced; the big wonderland show, featuring the Borneo quartet; the Darwin theory of man; the U-2 submarine; Siamese Twins; Donald McGregor, Scottish giant; the Newkeds and Snookum; Ferris Wheel; Stella and numerous other attractions. A number of merchants are decorating their windows in keeping with the Carnival.

JITNEY CROWD SHOOTS OUT ORNAMENTAL GLOBES

Shooting out ornamental light globes on the concrete bridge crossing Santiago creek on East Chapman street, Orange, last night, was a feature incident to a trip to San Diego by one of the Union State line jitneys, according to the statement of Mr. Jay who resides near the bridge. The passengers are said to have been intoxicated. The incident caused City Marshal Farrar and Constable Jackson of Orange to make a fast ride over the state highway as far south as Capistrano.

Three globes costing $5 each and as many lamps were put out of commission by a passenger who used them as targets upon which to practice his skill at handling a revolver. The distance was only a few feet, which perhaps accounts for the fact that the intoxicated wielder of the gun was able to hit the globes.

Information of the action of jitney bus passengers was phoned to City Marshal Farrar by Jay, who declared that the five passengers in the car were drunk, and that the car belonged to the Union line.

It has been the custom of this line to go to San Diego through Orange, striking the state highway at Tustin by way of Prospect avenue. The officers followed this route in hot pursuit of the jitney. At Tustin they heard it had passed through a few minutes ahead of them. They got word of it at Irvine and proceeded to Capistrano, where they gave up the chase. They returned to Orange and phoned to San Diego police to look out for them.

Santa Ana officers were also advised of the occurrence, it being thought that possibly the car might come this way. The night men and City Marshal Jernigan were out for some time trying to locate the bus.

Up to noon today the Orange officers had had no report from San Diego.

IF TOO FAT GET MORE FRESH AIR

BE MODERATE IN YOUR DIET AND REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT. TAKE OIL OF KOREIN

—Lack of fresh air it is said weakens the oxygen carrying power of the blood, the liver becomes sluggish, fat accumulates and the action of many of the vital organs are hindered thereby. The heart action becomes weak, work is an effort and the beauty of the figure is destroyed.

Fat put on by indoor life is unhealthy and if nature is not assisted in throwing it off a serious case of obesity may result.

When you feel that you are getting too stout, take the matter in hand at once. Don't wait until your figure has become a joke and your health ruined through carrying around a burden of unsightly and unhealthy fat.

Spend as much time as you possibly can in the open air; breathe deeply, and get from Rowley Drug Co. or any druggist a box of oil of korein capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself every few days and keep up the treatment until you are down to normal. Oil of korein is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, helps the digestion and even a few days treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight.

Man Who Watches Welding On Car Tracks Is Sightless As a Result

Because he gazed too closely and too long at the arc used in electric welding, Edward Goetz is today lying sightless in his bed at the Lacy House in this city.

Goetz is an engineer, who, just prior to the rains, had been in the employ of the Emmett bean thrasher. When the wet weather put a stop to the thrashing operations he took a vacation trip to Los Angeles, and while there, yesterday morning, he became interested in an electric weld that was being made at the corner of Fifth and Main streets. He pushed up as closely as possible to the spot where the arc was causing the conjunction of the broken metal, and watched the operation carefully. He felt no ill effects after the job was finished, but continued on his way as would otherwise be usual with him. His eyes burned slightly when he went to bed last night, but he thought nothing of it. This morning, when he awoke, it was to a world that held no light for him.

He succeeded in dressing and making his way with help to the car line, where he immediately took train for Santa Ana. He is now in the Lacy Hotel, and the doctors tell him that it will be several days before he will be able to see. The rays of the arc light, while not painful, had caused a blister on the back of the eyeballs, and until this blister is removed his sight will be lacking.

LIMAS' PRICE IS HOISTED TO $5.50

W. C. Jerome attended a meeting of the directors of the California Lima Bean Growers' Association at Oxnard yesterday, at which the price of limas, both for immediate and future delivery, was put at $5.50. The raise for future delivery was from $5.35. However, the association has sold all of the beans it has delivered, and might not accept orders for future delivery until the storm situation clears away. Jerome states that the Ventura threshers made no attempt to thresh between storms. Threshers here were busy yesterday and the day before.
